STATUS UPDATE

The purpose of this correspondence is to provide the court with an update regarding Mr. Roberto Remak's status on supervision. Mr. Remak commenced a term of supervised release on October 7, 2021.

According to the New Jersey Department of Corrections (NJDOC), he owes a 42-month imprisonment sentence on a state conviction for 1 count of Weapons/Unlawful Possession of Handguns, in violation of New Jersey Statute (NJS) 2C:39-5B(2), that occurred on September 29, 2019. After satisfying his federal sentence, Remak was released from custody instead of being transferred to state custody. Due to this outstanding commitment, a warrant was issued for his arrest by the NJDOC.

On January 26, 2023, members of the East Orange Police Department conducted a motor vehicle stop and it was determined that Mr. Remak was in violation of New Jersey Motor Vehicle and Traffic Violations Title 39:4-56 (Delaying Traffic) and Title 39: 4-135 (Parking on Side of One-Way Traffic) and he was issued a summons. However, due to the above-mentioned warrant, he was also taken into custody and is currently detained at the Garden State Youth Correctional Facility. Mr. Remak's scheduled max release date from NJDOC is March 22, 2025.

We are respectfully requesting no further action since the state conviction for Weapons/Unlawful Possession of Handguns predates his term of supervised release. Upon release from state custody, he will be required to complete the remainder of his supervised release term.
